

Since 2005, we have been combining strategy competence and implementation strength to achieve success together with our clients, from DAX 40 companies to successful mid-sized companies. Our dynamic corporate organization enables all Interos to actively contribute to our Competence Centers Purchasing, GRC (Governance, Risk and Compliance), IT Financial Management, IT Control and Transformation according to their interests. In this way, we promote individual development and the establishment of a strong network. As an employer, Intero Consulting offers a unique corporate culture where our virtues are practiced and where teamwork and mutual support are central.

We are now looking for you to join our team in Munich as a

Working student in Research and Knowledge Management (m/f/d)

Your tasks:

- You take responsibility for the maintenance and further development of the SharePoint-based intranet site on the topic of knowledge and are responsible for the development of new formats for internal knowledge transfer.
- You will support the conception of an internal knowledge platform, prepare internal lectures and write blog posts.
- You organize the internal knowledge transfer days and edit the video material from internal events together.
- You support the research, analysis and preparation of information from various specialist areas, especially digital transformation.

Your profile:

- You are currently studying, have an affinity for IT and ideally bring experience from internships.
- You have good analytical skills, a strong focus on implementation and initial experience in writing blog articles, video editing and building pages with SharePoint or similar modular websites.
- You enjoy familiarizing yourself with different subject areas and are asked to contribute your active support and reliability.
- You have impressive communication skills in German and English and are proficient in the use of Microsoft Office programs.

Our offer:

- A young and trustful corporate culture with regular team activities and offsite events.
- Deep insights into our organization and a flexible opportunity to gain work experience alongside your studies.
- Free spaces for personal development and initial professional orientation.

Are you ready to become part of the extraordinary Intero team?

Then we look forward to getting to know you soon. Please send your complete application documents to recruiting@intero-consulting.de! We look forward to receiving your application!